

2016 OUTSTANDING SERVICE AWARD RECIPIENTS

Mary Kivlahan - Retiree

Former IHCC employee Mary Kivlahan, who worked at the college for 38 years, was given the Outstanding Retiree Award for her involvement and support of the college since retiring. Kivlahan has stayed involved in many fundraising activities such as Celebrity Night, the culinary scholarship dinner, the Scholarship Auction, and Women Supporting Women. In the spring, Mary volunteers her time to plant flowers on the Ottumwa Main Campus.

Rollie & Lucy Reznicek - Lay Citizen

The Outstanding Lay Citizen Award went to Rollie & Lucy Reznicek, active members of the Cenerville community for the last 53 years. Lucy is a graduate of IHCC. She and Rollie were very passionate about the IHCC Bond Issue and took it upon themselves to educate and communicate the importance of the investment into their campus and their community.

David Birchmier - Alumnus

David Birchmier, was honored with the Outstanding Alumnus Award, which recognizes achievements since an alumnus graduated from Indian Hills. Birchmier is a successful alumnus who has chosen to stay and build his businesses in southern Iowa. David is both the founder and CEO of MPA (My Personal Admin) headquartered in Bloomfield, IA. In addition to MPA, David is also the Vice President of Iowa Wind and Solar, headquartered in Fairfield.

Michael Schnoebelen - Employee

Michael Schnoebelen, was honored with the Outstanding Employee Award, in recognition of his knowledge, willingness to help others, and his attention to detail. Schnoebelen serves as the Director of Programming Services at IHCC. Michael is always on the frontline of exploring new technology/advancements which makes IHCC more user-friendly and efficient for our students and staff.

Andy Summers - Employee

Andy Summers, Associate Professor of Automotive Technology, has worked at IHCC for the past 9 years.. Summers pushes students to excel not only in academia and labs but also in life. He serves on many committees on campus and volunteers his time to many fundraising activities. You can often find him helping other staff members on projects or assisting a student with needs after office hours.