

2024 CALENDAR OF EVENTS

August-December | All Events are FREE Admission

Paintings by Ken Nichols

Tuesday, August 27 - Thursday, September 26

Meet the Artist: Tuesday, August 27 | 4:00-5:30 p.m.

Indian Hills Art Gallery

Columbia Missouri's Ken Nichols has been dabbling in painting for the past 20 years. Historically, he paid the bills working in restaurants. The mass-layoffs in early 2020 gave him the push he needed to give art as a full-time occupation a try. Now he hustles: providing artwork for several local restaurants, saying "yes" to all commissions, and having the odd group or solo show.

Dennis Warner in Concert

Thursday, September 19 | 7:30 p.m.

St. John Auditorium

A globally accomplished folk music singer-songwriter, David Warner's music is filled with imagery and storytelling. Hailing from Minnesota, Warner has performed in all 50 states, the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts in Washington, D.C. and toured to South Africa with his Beads on One String concerts. His recent 11th album Pilot Me was #8 on the Folk DJ Radio Charts. Along with being featured on PBS Backroads, Warner was featured at the Round Glass Music Awards in NYC celebrating musicians from around the globe who create music to make the world a better place.

Deb Baughman Art Exhibition

Wednesday, October 2 - Thursday, October 31

Meet the Artist: Thursday, October 17

4:00-5:30 p.m. | Indian Hills Art Gallery

Retired art teacher Deb Baughman doesn't limit herself to one subject or medium. She likes watercolor, oil, printmaking, and plein air painting. While she is from rural Pulaski, Iowa, Baughman enjoys creating industrial city views, landscapes, and vintage portraits. She hopes the viewer is drawn to follow the paths through a piece, making a connection to something in their personal lives.

Ottumwa Symphony Orchestra: Something Old, Something New

Saturday, October 5 | 7:30 p.m.

St. John Auditorium | *Must show IHCC ID for Free Admission

Performing "Good News from Beijing" by Zheng Lu & Ma Hongye, Chorale Prelude to "Wachet Auf" by Bach, arr. by Eugene Ormandy, Concerto for French Horn, No. 3, in Eb major by Mozart featuring Kristin Ronning, Symphony No. 1, Op 68 in C minor by Brahms (4th movement), and "Huapango" by Jose Pablo Moncayo. Dr. William LaRue Jones, Conductor. For more information, <https://www.ottumwasymphonyorchestra.org/>

Indian Hills Fall Choral Concert: Earth, Sea, and Sky

Featuring Concert Choir, Chamber Choir, Tona Bella, Coro Colline, and soloists.

The American Soldier

Saturday, November 2 | 7:00 p.m. | St. John Auditorium

In honor of our United States Veterans, Douglas Taurel's powerful one person play raises awareness of the struggles Veterans and Military families face when they either come home from war, transition out of the military, and, of course, the invisible wounds of PTSD. This performance provides an understanding what service to our nation sincerely means. For more information: www.theamericansoldiersoloshow.com

Indian Hills Jazz Band Concert

Monday, November 4 | 7:30 p.m. | St. John Auditorium | David Sharp, Director

Hey, Look What I Made!

Wednesday, November 6 - Wednesday, November 27 | Indian Hills Art Gallery

Meet the Artists: Wednesday, November 6 | 4:00-5:30 p.m.

This will be the fifth installment of this popular show at IHCC! This exhibit will feature the creative works of Indian Hills staff, faculty, retirees, and family members. Please contact Lisa Fritz (Lisa.Fritz@indianhills.edu) if you have creative projects for this showcase.

Indian Hills Music Recital

Tuesday, November 12 | 7:00 p.m. | St. John Auditorium

Diverse music selections by Indian Hills students from the voice and instrumental studios of Dr. Janene Sheldon, Dr. Christine Bergan, Tom Shadonix and Sean Six.

Carl Hentsch: Man-Made Quilts

Wednesday, December 4 through January 30 | Indian Hills Art Gallery

Meet the Artist: Wednesday, December 4 | 4:00-5:30 p.m.

Contemporary male quilter, Carl Hentsch examines the unique aesthetics and techniques that the male artist brings to a craft long-associated with feminine arts and labor. Though a minority in the field of quilting, the number of male quilters is increasing worldwide. Part of a loose-knit community of male quilters whose quilts utilize striking contemporary imagery and compositions that navigate their personal interests often related to painting, film, and popular culture.

Indian Hills Theatre: A Christmas Carol by John Jakes

Thursday, Dec. 5 - Saturday, Dec. 7 | 7:00 p.m. | St. John Auditorium

Perhaps one of the most famous Christmas stories, A Christmas Carol, is told through the eyes of Charles Dickens himself. Dickens weaves in and out of the action helping Scrooge navigate to the iconic "God Bless Us Everyone" finale. This brilliant script by John Jakes, captures the magic of Dicken's original story. Dr. Jennifer Boyenga & Dr. Ray Slavens, Directors

Indian Hills Holiday Concert: Bells Are Ringing!

Thursday, December 12 | 7:30 p.m. | St. John Auditorium

Featuring the Indian Hills choirs, Jazz Band, & Music Faculty performers. David Sharp & Dr. Janene Sheldon, Directors
